General Membership Meeting Minutes

Margie True gave us an update on the “One Book One School” program. The book chosen this year is “Love That Dog” by Sharon Creech. It is a short book told in poetry format. Teachers have been actively preparing/instructing poetry units with their students to coincide with this program. April 14th is a school wide kick off, culminating with literacy night on Thursday, April 29th 2010.

Old Business

None

New Business

Guest speaker Truth Johnson from Highland Park Middle School spoke about volunteering in middle schools. She handed out a list of activities which are volunteered operated at Highland Park. There are two activities held over the summer that are already seeking support. They are the 6th grade BBQ, and assembling first day packets. If interested in helping with either of those please contact Truth at coordinator@hpmsvolunteers.org

Auction: Three years ago an auction was held to help raise funds to build a school track. Judith M. and Ellen M. would like to hold another auction, possibly next fall to help raise funds to replace the schools play structure. More information will be presented at the May PTC meeting.
