Presidents report – Amy Stewart

- Voted YES on all new board members/positions
 - Adria Eilers (2nd term/3rd year) Treasurer
 - Barb Renker, Fundraising
 - Katelin Ellis, Communications
 - Lindsay Zobrist, Spirit Coordinator

Treasurers report – Adria Eilers

- Statement of Activity presented
- Budget reviewed for year
- This year will have less fundraising due to CDL, resulting in lots of events pending
- Hoping virtual jog-a-thon will bring in at least half of typical amount

School Spirit Report – Lindsay Zobrist

- Working on t shirts with new logo and plan to hand them out with jog-a-thon or ice cream social

Fundraising report – Barb Renker

- Sadly, no Piccolo Mondo this year for events
- Dining for Dollars lined up for the next few months (Chipotle, MOD, Pizzicato)
- Write a Check campaign will happen in February
- Jog-a-thon starting soon and we all need to remember to post and hype it up!

Bylaws report – Cassandra Buyserie

- Our bylaws were last edited in 2005
- Edited to reflect how we have been functioning as a board
- No members without consent

Volunteer Coordinator report – Cassandra Buyserie

- No specific volunteer opportunities planned as of yet, hoping school will let us know where we can help

Safe Routes report – Leah Biado Luis

- The six E's
- Ellie Martin is SME new Safe Routes leader
- October 7th is International Walk & Roll to school day (making it a community event this year)
- Action plan update included increased safety throughout surround school areas, new signs, crosswalk more visible by working with neighbors on tree cutting
- New traffic safety play area!

NAC report – Jen Fife Adams and Seonna Zimmerman

- Next meeting is October 20th at 6:30pm virtually with School Board Chair being a guest speaker
- NAC is brainstorming how to hold a community Halloween parade with teachers joining

Principals report – Cherie Reese

- Huge goal this year was for every student to have learning devices + access to internet
- Library is up and running with plans for a library bus
- New Assistant Principal, Autumn McConnel
